After 6 months without charging, the Kellogg-Hubbard Library will be re instating overdue fines effective Monday, September 14th, 2020

How to avoid fines

• Renew your items
  o Everything except DVDs and museum passes can be renewed; as long as no one else is waiting for them.
  o Renew your library items online 24/7 via your library account, or email
  o Renew your items when the Library is open by calling or stopping by the Library • Return your items
  o 24/7 in the drop boxes outside the Library.
  o If your item is due that day, make sure it’s in the drop box 15 minutes before the Library closes.

How to pay fines

• If you have more than $5 in fines, you can pay online via your library account
• In-person when the library is open
• Some patrons have even paid by mail

For all the information on borrowing, renewing, and fines visit: https://www.kellogghubbard.org/borrowing-books-and-more